

NU M-MAGE

Aisha Bryant

Talent: Actress/Model/Singer

Aisha began her career in the entertainment industry at age 3.

She is a graduate from Pebblebrook Performing Arts High School.

She has finished her second year of college at Middle Georgia College majoring in Communication and with a minor in Musical Theatre.

She auditioned and was accepted to attend the Disney World College program in Orlando, Florida, and she has also been accepted to attend Kennesaw State University for the fall of 2011.

She has been in theatre productions such as “Rock On”, “Mama, I’m Your Child”, “The Music Man”, “High School Musical” and “Bye, Bye, Birdie” and was also a co-star in the production “Alana”. Her film work includes being in “We Are Marshall”, “Why did I get married too”, “Foot loose”, “Joyful Noise” and “BET’s Read between the Lines”.

Aisha has been singing and performing throughout the state Georgia at various venues such as The Governor’s Mansion, The Georgia State Capital, Kennesaw State University, Marietta Civic Center, Stone Mountain Park, Powder Springs Day Parades, American Legions and Veteran Day ceremonies. She also has been in singing in competitions at Walt Disney World and various locations through the world.

She made history becoming the first female and African American in her high school’s 45-year history to attend All-State chorus six consecutive years in Savannah, Georgia.

During her first semester of college she was one of five students selected to become an exchange student in Paris France. Once arriving in France she was ask to perform at the Cathedral “Mount Saint Michal”. Upon returning to school she was presented with an Outstanding Georgia Citizens Award from the Secretary of State as a Goodwill Ambassador.

Aisha would like to thank God, her dad, mom, sister and brother for always encouraging and supporting her.

NU M-MAGE

Mori Bryant

Talent: Actor/Model/Rapper/Dancer/Writer

Mori began performing in the entertainment area when he was 9 years old competing in a talent show with his sisters in Rockford, Illinois where they won the competition.

From this point on he continued to sing in the youth church choir. He started playing a few instruments in middle school where he became first chair with the French horn.

After completing middle school, he had the feeling to continue with his performance skills, so he auditioned to enter Pebblebrook High School for the Excellence in Performing Arts and was accepted.

He's now a graduate from Pebblebrook Performing Arts High School with a major in Dance and a minor in Drama.

He is a very artistic young man who started working on a business at the age of 16 designing ties, gloves and vests. A couple of his pieces were used in a dance production and modeling show. He received a dance scholarship from the Georgia Dance Conservatory where he has studied Ballet, Contemporary, Hip Hop and Partnering dance.

He has been in dance productions such as "Fall In to Dance", "Reach with in, Within Reach", "Just a Dancer", "Reflections" and "Back to School Talent Show". His film work includes being in "Why did I get married Too", and "Joyful Noise". His theatre productions are "The Wind Chill Five" and "Sleeping Beauty",

Mori has worked as a choreographer on a couple of projects and still receive calls to help out dancers. He has constantly been involved with modeling and performing at community events throughout the state Georgia.

Mori interests are basketball, acting, dancing, drawing, rapping and writing music. He has been dancing for three years and acting for six years.

Mori would like to thank God, his dad, mom, and sister's for always encouraging and supporting him.

NU M-MAGE

Nikkei Bryant

Talent: Actress/Model/Singer

Nikkei began performing in the entertainment area when she was 8 years old competing in a talent show with her sister and brother in Rockford, Illinois where they won the competition.

She continued to excel in music in elementary and middle school where she was selected for Honor Chorus three consecutive years.

After completing middle school, she wanted to follow in her sister and brother's foot step, so she auditioned to enter Pebblebrook High School for the Excellence in Performing Arts and was accepted.

She's now a graduate from Pebblebrook Performing Arts High School with a major in Vocal and a minor Drama.

During her senior year in high school, she received a scholarship from the American Legion to attend political leadership training at Georgia Southern University in Statesboro Georgia. Upon returning she was presented with an Outstanding Georgia Citizens Award from the Secretary of State as a Goodwill Ambassador.

She has been in theatre productions such as "The Wind Chill Five". Her film work includes being in "We Are Marshall".

Nikkei has been modeling since the age of 10 and received a one-year contract with a modeling agency. She has model at back to school fashion shows, model extravaganza fashion shows and other events. She began singing at the age of 8 and has performed throughout the state Georgia at various venues with her sister.

She has received numerous awards such as:
Outstanding Choral Music Award
Georgia Music Educators Association Award
District Honor Chorus Award
Honor Roll Excellence Award

She loves to sing, dance, act and model.

Nikkei would like to thank God, her dad, mom, sister, and brother for always encouraging and supporting her.